

Anchor Bay Scuba Join our Scuba diving family

May 2018 News letter

Anchor Bay Heading to Grenada

We are heading to the Island of spices

Looking forward to diving in Grenada, and learning more history about another island that we scuba dive. We will be sharing our adventures when we come home. We hope you will join us on our next adventures.

PADI's Womens Dive

Save the Date for the Fourth Annual PADI Women's Dive Day – 21 July 2018

Since 2015, divers from every corner of the globe have come together for PADI® Women's Dive Day to bond over their love of the ocean and passion for diving. This growing tradition will continue on July 21 2018, further strengthening and supporting the overall dive community. Anchor Bay Scuba will head up to Tobermory Canada and celebrate. If you are not certified and would like to learn to dive and join in dive, please come in and we can get you certified for our Fourth Event.
